THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

On 23 December 1950, it was learned that the cold storage building at 1 through 15 Stralauer Allee in East Berlin will be assigned to the Volkspolizei. Approximately 150,000 kg of butter and lard now stored in the cold stores must not be released to the population on orders of the Soviet komendatura in Potsdam. The German manager was directed by the Soviet manager to remove all stocks of perishable food from the cold stores in an effort to obtain space for high-grade, non-perishable goods.
